2016 LILLY ROSÉ
SANTA YNEZ VALLEY

The Lilly Rosé comes from the finest Grenache clusters from the hillside blocks of Folded Hills. Winemaker Angela Osborne works with grower Ruben Solorzano to choose the optimum picking times to capture both freshness and flavor, then makes the wine in an honest and time-honored way.

The initial pick is comprised completely of the Alban clone, which is then foot trod and left to soak on skins for 24 hours to bring a faint, salmon-pink hue and depth of flavor to the wine. The second pick is from Angela's favorite vines, the 362 clone. The two picks were then pressed together to capture their vibrant acidity. Once pressed, the two clones were fermented together naturally with ambient yeast. It was bottled before Spring, ready to enjoy with all of your fresh foods of the season. The result is a vibrant, mouthwatering rosé with refreshing flavor.
